WILLFORD LEAVING CITY COUNCIL FOR STATE LEGISLATURE

Mayor Pro Tem Jenny Willford was elected to become the new State House District 34 representative in November and will take office in January. Consequently, she is leaving her position as Ward 4 representative. She will be honored at the Dec. 12 meeting. City Council discussed how to move forward with filling that seat at the Nov. 28 council meeting, which was after the Connection went to press.

Go to www.northglenn.org/ward4opening for more information on the opening as it becomes available. ► Mayor Meredith Leighty sends her goodbye and well wishes to Willford in her column on Page 4.

Art Appreciation ► Exhibit Features Original Northglenn Resident

A new art exhibit at the Parsons Theatre will honor a Northglenn original.

Betty grace Gibson and her family were one of the first homeowners in what would become Northglenn, and she worked as a secretary at Malley Drive Elementary School for 23 years.

Outside work, one of her passions was art. In 1961, she saw an ad in the local newspaper for people who wanted to paint together. Betty and five other women jumped at the chance – out of this group was born the Paletteers Art Club. It's still active and she was a member until her death in 2021 at 95 years old.

Betty grace Gibson

A self-taught artist, she painted using a variety of mediums, but watercolor and acrylic were her favorites. She began spending the summers in Taos, N.M., and loved painting the Southwest. She taught many workshops and served on the Northglenn Arts and Humanities Foundation Board of Directors with former mayor Joyce Downing. Ms. Gibson was a driving force for art in the Northglenn area.

An exhibit of her work will be shown on the Art Wall near the Parsons Theatre, 1 E. Memorial Parkway, from Jan. 5 through March 27. All are welcome to the opening reception, 6 to 9 p.m. on Thurs., Jan. 5, in the Community Rooms. The reception and gallery are free to attend. The exhibit is open to the public during theatre operating hours.

Members Sought for Resident Police Board

Geyer

May

Based on recommendations from our police department organizational assessment, City Council established the Community Co-Production Policing (CCPP) Advisory Board two years ago.

Though the term “Community Co-Production Policing” is a mouthful, the root of the philosophy is simple – we want to take Northglenn’s value of community policing to the next level by inviting stakeholders to be more involved in how police services are provided in our city.

The board was formed during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, and despite the challenges, it began to forge a new path of interaction between the Northglenn Police Department and our community. We feel this board is about to shift into high gear, and dedicated volunteers are needed.

Membership

It’s vital to have voices that represent a cross-section of our community on the board. It needs people willing to share authentic and thoughtful perspectives, yet open to learning the “how and why” behind current policing practices. All police departments have fans and critics; CCPP needs members somewhere in between. We need people willing to listen to thoughts and ideas of others, respect factual data, and then use the different views and information to work with the group on recommendations to serve as a bridge in the community.

Openings

From Jan. 4 to 30, we will accept applications for four CCPP openings: Ward 4 member, two at-large positions, and a youth member. Council chooses the members, and we are hoping for a large pool of applicants. If you are interested in learning more about public safety, have a few hours a month to dedicate to the board, and want to engage in the constructive growth of our police department, please apply!

The city has long valued community engagement. The number of boards, commissions, volunteer groups, committees, surveys, meetings and other efforts are a testament to this. Your voice is valued. Your participation is needed and welcome.

► For more information on the board, or to apply starting Jan. 4, go to www.northglenn.org/ccppboard.

Take Steps to Keep Packages Safe

The holidays bring out the spirit of giving for most of us – and the temptation of stealing for others.

Porch pirates go around neighborhoods looking for delivered gifts that have been left unattended near the front door.

If you believe your package has been stolen, first contact the shipping company and/or seller, as the package may still be en route.

If you’ve confirmed that the package was delivered, report the theft at www.northglenn.org/reportonline or 303.288.1535. Police may respond with an increased presence in your area and alert the community.

City Council members took a hands-on tour of North Metro Fire Rescue District's training facility on Oct. 27. The center is located in the Weld County portion of Northglenn.

NORTHGLENN CONNECTION

The Northglenn Connection is delivered monthly to residents as a reference for city information and to learn about what is happening in the community. This and past editions are also at www.northglenn.org/connection. Contact John Eisel at jeisel@northglenn.org for any questions, comments or concerns.

TIPS TO PREVENT PORCH PIRACY

Free

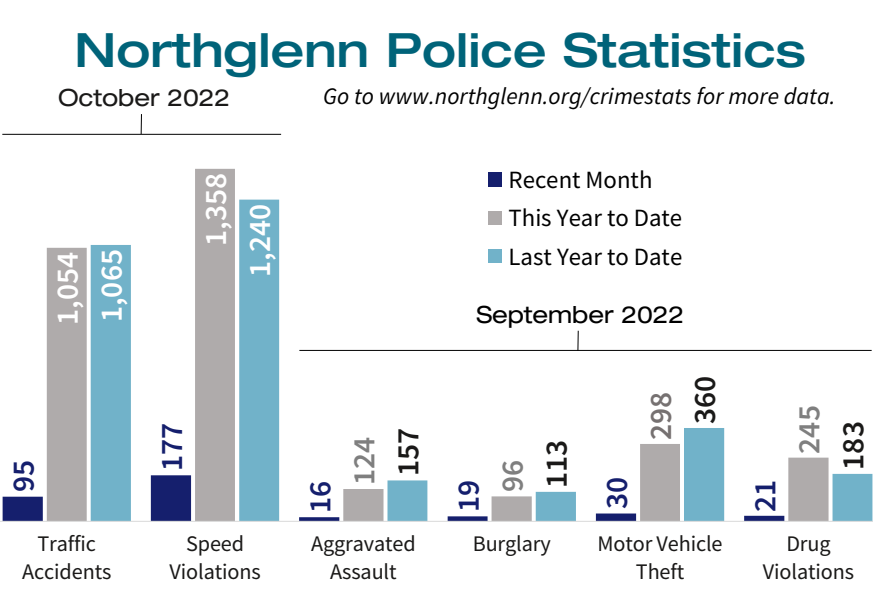

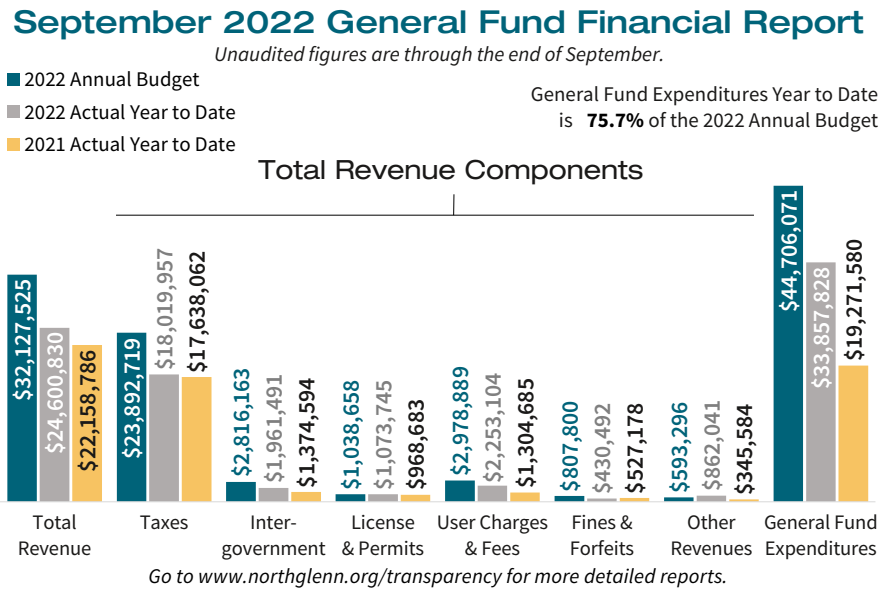

- Require signatures for your deliveries
- Ask a friend or neighbor to pick up your package
- If available, have the package delivered to a store – Amazon has lockers where you can pick up orders.
- If allowed, have packages sent to your work – or to a friend or family member you know will be home

Costs Money

- Rent a post office box
- Purchase a door camera – like a guard dog, it helps dissuade thieves just by its presence, and if someone is brazen enough to steal your package, they’ll be caught on camera. (And the police will be very interested in the video!)

RX DELIVERY AVAILABLE

Prescription delivery is available to residents 65+ or who can't pick up or have their order delivered. ► Go to www.northglenn.org/prescription or call 303.450.8893 for details.

Mayor's Memo: A Message from Mayor Meredith Leighty

Meredith Leighty

Thanks to Our Holiday Workers

► First Responders, Water, Retail Work So We Can Rest

Leighty

Happy holidays! For many of us, this festive season is hustle and bustle, get-togethers with loved ones, and time off. But not for all of us...I'd like to give a nod of appreciation to those who work long hours during the holidays – retail, food service and others, thank you!

We also have water and wastewater staff making sure clean water is literally at our fingertips at any moment.

And most especially – a big thank you to our first responders. The holiday season tends to be a high volume of calls for police, fire, mental health and emergency medical personnel. These services are 24/7, so our first responders and dispatchers often miss holiday gatherings with family and friends to help those in need in our community.

I want to extend my appreciation for their dedication and commitment to providing emergency response – which sometimes is live-saving support – to people who are in a crisis situation.

Of course, I am partial to the sworn and civilian staff of the Northglenn Police Department and North Metro Fire Rescue District. An extra big “you are wonderful” to all of them!

Jenny Willford Moving on to State Legislature

On a different note, I am sad to lose a member of our team, Mayor Pro Tem Jenny Willford. However, the good news is she will continue to serve our community as state representative – congrats! We will honor Jenny at her last meeting on Dec. 12, and I invite you to join us in person or virtually. She has served as a Ward 4 council member for five years and mayor pro tem for three. Jenny's dedication to the city, passion for the environment and renewable energy, awareness of inclusion, and commitment to moving our city forward will be missed. Thank you for your service, Jenny.

In closing, I wish you and yours a warm, safe holiday season!

– Mayor Meredith Leighty

RECREATION CENTER DISCOUNT IN DECEMBER

Do you want to move your exercise routine inside, get college kids moving on winter break or get someone a great holiday gift?

The Northglenn Recreation Center is offering a 10% discount on all 20-visit punch passes purchased in December. This is open to all ages and residencies, and is good for renewals, too. To take advantage of the deal, you must stop by the center, 1 E. Memorial Parkway. Note: this does NOT apply to judo punch passes.

► For more details, call 303.450.8800.

RECOGNIZE U.S. VETS AT MEMORIAL

There's still time to honor a person or group who served in the U.S. Armed Forces!

You can order an engraved brick that will be added to the base of the Northglenn Veterans Memorial near City Hall, 11701 Community Center Drive.

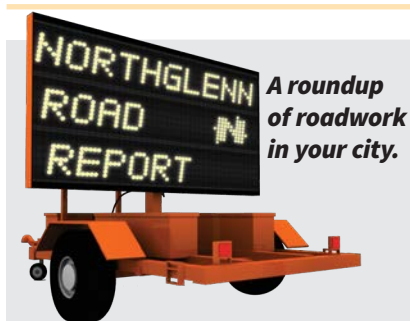

Bricks at the Northglenn Veterans Memorial

Costs range from $50 to $150. ► For more details or to place an order, go to www.northglenn.org/vetmemorial or contact Belia Dameron at bdameron@northglenn.org or 303.280.7821.

Act soon – orders will only be taken through Dec. 30!

A roundup of roadwork in your city.

- Community Center Drive – The road is being repaved from Malley Drive up to the Webster Lake Promenade. The project may force the narrowing of the road down to one lane, although it should be done by the end of December.
- Huron Waterline project – The one mile of waterline has nearly been replaced underneath Huron Street from 104th Avenue to the south city limit. This requires that Huron Street traffic is limited to one lane in each direction and occasionally side streets connecting to Huron Street are closed off. Depending on weather, the waterline should be fully replaced in 2022, with paving likely coming in the spring.

- Although it's been a few years since the city adopted its current logo, you can still see a few signs with the old oval emblem with the big curly 'N'. As time and funds allow, the city continues to update the signs. However, if you have a fondness for the old logo, you can purchase a street sign with it. ► See above right for details.

Old Street Signs for Sale!

What's the hottest gift in Northglenn this holiday season? A retired street sign with the city's old logo on it, of course!

Order yours at www.northglenn.org/signs. They are sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Funds benefit the Citizen's Police Academy Alumni Association of Northglenn (CPAAAN).
