Public is Invited to Welcome Reception for Northglenn's City Manager

Northglenn, CO ---Northglenn's new City Manager, A.J. Krieger is scheduled to officially begin work in the City of Northglenn on Thursday, January 11, 2007. The City invites all residents to attend a welcome reception to meet and greet the new City Manager at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, January 11, 2007, in City Council Chambers. The City's regularly scheduled City Council meeting will follow the welcome reception at 7:00 p.m. in Council Chambers at 11701 Community Center Drive.

Krieger, who served as the City Manager of Ferguson, Missouri was unanimously selected by City Council after Slavin Management Consultant, Inc. conducted a nationwide search that produced 29 highly, qualified applicants. Krieger comes to Northglenn with over 12 years of experience in municipal government, particularly in Economic Development. Besides serving as the City Manager of Ferguson, Missouri for three years, he served as Assistant City Manager for three years and Director of Economic Development for three years for the City of Decatur, Illinois. Prior to his work in Decatur, Krieger was the Director of Economic Development for the City of Woodstock, Illinois.

Krieger holds a Master's degree in Public Administration from St. Louis University in Missouri and a Bachelors of Science degree in Speech Communication from Southern Illinois University.

Come join City Council and welcome A.J. Kreiger to our community.
