NEWS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

Type of Incident:	Internet Luring of a Child
Date:	February 02, 2007
Time of Release:	11:30 PM
Prepared by:	Jeff Herronen, Patrol Sergeant
Telephone:	(303) 450-8893

On February 02, 2007 investigators from the Northglenn Police Department conducted an undercover internet investigation. A fictitious “web-page” was created on the internet with the investigator posing as a thirteen (13) year old female. Giridhar R. Ramasamy, an adult, initiated contact with investigators through the web-page. Giridhar Ramasamy began communicating online with investigators and agreed to meet with the fictitious 13 year old in Northglenn for the purpose of having intercourse.

Giridhar Ramasamy was placed under arrest when he arrived at the meeting location. He is a resident of Broomfield, originally from India. He is in the United States legally with a non-immigrant status. He is currently held at the Adams County Detention Facility on the following charges: Internet Luring of a Child, Enticement of a Child and Attempted Sexual Assault on a Child. All three charges are Felony crimes.

If anyone has information relating to this case or possible additional victims, please contact Detective Paul Gesi at 303-450-8857.
