

NORTHGLENN POLICE DEPARTMENT

11701 Community Center Drive
Northglenn, CO 80233-8061

NEWS RELEASE For Immediate Release

Type of Incident: Missing Adult
Case Number: 2007-0079
Date: January 4th, 2007
Time of Release: 1:30 PM
Prepared by: Sergeant Steve Garrow
Telephone: 303-450-8870

On January 4th, 2007 the Northglenn Police Department were contacted by the family of Francis William Heath, DOB 01-18-1929, 10714 Downing Street, Northglenn Colorado.

We were advised that Mr. Heath had left his home on January 3rd, at approximately 2:00 PM to go to a local bank. The family told us they received a phone call from Mr. Heath at approximately 9:00 PM and he told them he was in the area of Alameda and Federal in Denver.

Mr. Heath told his family he was lost and needed directions home. Mr. Heath still has not returned home. Mr. Heath has Alzheimer's and has other medical problems that he has to take medication daily.

Mr. Heath was last seen in his 1974 Dodge Dart, Colorado License SRB 846, the vehicle is a 4 door and is White and Tan in color.

The police department has issued an Amber Alert in an attempt to locate Mr. Heath and we are asking for the public's assistance in locating him.

If anyone has any information in reference to Mr. Heath's location they are asked to call 911 to have the local police contacted.

The Detective working the case is Detective Kelly Haralson and her phone number is 303-450-8855 or 303-450-8893.