NEWS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

Type of Incident:	Suspicious Incident
Case Number:	2007- 04154
Date:	July 16th, 2007
Time of Release:	10:30 pm
Prepared by:	Ian Lopez, Patrol Sergeant
Telephone:	(303) 450-8893

On July 16th, 2007 at approximately 11:37 am Northglenn Police were dispatched to the Mr. Neat's tuxedo store located at 10620 Melody Dr. on the report of a suspicious male.

When officers arrived they contacted store employees who told them a suspicious male entered the store at approximately 10:00 am and asked to be fit with a tuxedo. The man was acting nervous, sweating profusely, and possibly carrying a handgun and a knife. The man also made several suspicious statements to the employees.

The man was subsequently fitted with and eventually left the store wearing a tuxedo. He then left the store in an unknown location and in an unknown type vehicle before police arrived.

Northglenn Police collected information from Mr. Neat's about the man's possibly identity. Police were able to contact a member of the man's family and an employer who told them he was possibly delusional.
