*UPDATE Mr. Philavanh has been returned to his daughter and son-in-law after a Laos interpreter was able to put Northglenn Police in contact with them.

On February 24, 2008 at approximately 0930 hrs officers found an elderly male party, later identified as Sanith Philavanh (DOB/061520), lying in the grass at Northglenn High School, 601 W 100th Pl. Medical was called to the scene and he was medically cleared by Northglenn Ambulance and North Metro Fire. Officer's canvassed the area attempting to locate his residence, unsuccessfully. He was returned to the Northglenn Police Department with his walker. A reverse 911 call was put out for 1 square mile around the High School, requesting information- no further leads were obtained.

The male is unable to communicate due to a language barrier. Using the language line, we are not able to determine the language at this time. Attached is a photo of the male party.

Northglenn Police Department is asking anyone with information about this individual to call Sergeant Gardner at 303.450.8893.
