NEWS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

Type of Incident: Mock DUI Accident and Safety Assembly
Date: April 29, 2008
Prepared by: John T. Rosecrans, Traffic Sergeant
Telephone: (303) 450-8966

The Northglenn Police Department is conducting a mock fatal accident and safety/education assembly at Northglenn High School on April 29th, 2008. This incident will begin at 8:15 a.m. and will be conducted in cooperation with North Metro Fire and Rescue, Northglenn Ambulance, and the students, faculty, and staff of Northglenn High School.

The intent of the program is to educate and increase awareness of the dangers and legal requirements that young drivers are faced with.

The program will begin with a guest speaker who will address the entire junior class of Northglenn High School. The speaker has personal knowledge of the loss associated with poor driving choices. The attendees will then be addressed by Officers of the Northglenn Police Department and will receive information about teen driving laws and teen driving statistics.

The program will end with a mock traffic accident scene that will include several Northglenn High School drama club actors, fire fighters, police officers, and flight for life personnel. The accident will occur at the corner of Huron St. and 100th Pl. in Northglenn.

The media is invited. For more information contact Sgt. Rosecrans.
