For Immediate Release

Type of Incident: Burglary
Case Number: 2007-4480
Date: August 1, 2007
Time of Release: 1:00 p.m.
Prepared by: Eric Guenther, Sergeant
Telephone: (303) 450-8807

The Northglenn Police Department is requesting the public's assistance in identifying three suspects who committed a burglary, which occurred on July 31, 2007, at approximately 4:00 A.M.

The suspects threw a rock through the glass door of the Y-Mart convenience store located at 10770 Washington St. in Northglenn. Video surveillance was able to capture pictures and voices of the suspects who entered the store and stole over $1,000.00 in cigarettes and related store merchandise. One suspect's voice is heard saying, "Keep it moving, you got two minutes, grab everything Jeremy." "Jeremy grab some Marlboros, grab some sh--."

The suspect's gathered the merchandise and left the area before police arrived. The store owner was able to provide the police with video and sound surveillance which provided pictures of the suspects. The suspects are described as one Hispanic male, approximately 16 to 20 years of age and two White males who are also in their late teens or early twenties.

If anyone can provide the police with additional information, and the identity of these suspects, please contact Detective Peter Rice at 303-450-8979.
