NEWS RELEASE

City of Northglenn Briefs

Oct. 6, 2017 – Briefs from the City of Northglenn for October 2017:

Help Your Neighbors By Shoveling Snow

Many residents are unable to shovel snow from their sidewalks and driveways. YOU can help by becoming a Snow Stormer! The need is great and personal reward tremendous. Shovel whenever it works for you - morning, day or night.

For more information contact Jenni Murphy at 303-450-8904 or jmurphy@northglenn.org.

Art on Parade Voting Ending Soon

You only have until Nov. 3 to vote for your favorite piece in the City of Northglenn's 2017/18 Art on Parade. Ballots are available at www.northglennarts.org or the Northglenn Recreation Center, 11801 Community Center Drive. You can check out the five pieces in person at E.B. Rains Jr. Memorial Park, across from the rec center.

Arts & Humanities Foundation Seeking Board Members

Interested in supporting theater, arts and culture in the City of Northglenn? The Northglenn Arts & Humanities Foundation is seeking board members. For more details, visit www.northglennarts.org or contact Michael Stricker at 303-450-8727.

Candy Donations Sought for Safe Street Halloween

Oct. 28, thousands of costumed children and their families will flood Northglenn High School for Safe Street Halloween. Local businesses and high school students will be handing them candy - which means we need a lot of candy! The Northglenn Police Department is taking donations and drop-off bins are located at City Hall, 11701 Community Center Drive. Please contact Officer Scott McNeilly at 303-450-8852 to help out.
